

Thank you's

What a great birthday card! I love chocolate, so the card was very appropriate. The sweetest treat this week though was having lunch here in Florida with Ann Cassese Costantino and Mary O'Shaughnessy Cleary. Thank you for all the kind things you do.

HAPPY SPRING!

Thank you for the neat birthday card and its island theme. It brings back memories of my stays on Governors Island, in the Hundred Islands National Park of the Philippines!

Thank you so much for the very welcome card. Hitting 70 years on the 18th and looking forward to many more. Even though I am now in Ocala, FL, the memories of Hicksville and HHS will always be in my thoughts. Imagine, Reunion 60 is only a few years away!

Thanks for the thoughts on my birthday. I'm sure with the amount of people on the mailing list there must be quite a few that have to go out all the time. Thanks to all the staff for the work that you put into the newsletter. I have been enjoying it since its inception.

Tom Steedman '60

Thanks a lot for your thoughtfulness. I really appreciate the birthday card. Hope all is well up north. We are suffering with sun and 75 degrees today. Take care.

THANX GUYS !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Hi,

Just to let you know, somewhere along the way my last name has gotten misspelled--Lynn McMorrow class 1968--now Lynn O'Riordan. Thanks so much for the Happy Birthday--very nice of you all to keep track and be so thoughtful.

Lynn

Ed. Note...sorry for the O'Riordan. We've inserted an "R" to correct the misspelling on the "master" birthday list and the master anniversary list.

Lynn McMorrow '68

Hello All,

I just finished reading the March Newsletter and I can't tell you how much it brings me back to Hicksville and those beautiful High School days. I also browsed the 1960 Bio's and thought I had sent a current picture of my wife, Lin and I with the Bio. I have attached it and was wondering if the Big Henry could insert it at the top of my Bio?

Thank you guys for all you do. It really means a lot to us.

Ron Rocek '60

Dear Ann,

Thanks so much for following up with me. I am very, very disappointed not to be able to attend the Florida mini reunion in Punta Gorda. It's only about a 4-1/2 hour drive from us, but we have company arriving from up north on the 17th and they don't depart until the 21st. If there will be another before September, please let me know so we can plan to attend. Hope everyone has a fabulous time and I look forward to seeing you all in September (if not before).

Take care and my very best wishes to everyone.

Saw Audrey Glenn Schneider's (HHS '67) pix in this month's newsletter. Is there any way you can pass along my "hi" and email address to Audrey? We were friends then, but I haven't seen or heard anything since I graduated in 1966. Thanks.

Hi all,

After being contacted by Peggy (Moldovak) Gill from the class of 1967, we found out about your great publication and signed up immediately. In the February issue it says that Lorraine Palmer is looking for us. We are still here, on Long Island in Dix Hills. We were married 37 years last November and have 3 sons and 3 grandchildren. We can be reached at caswier@optonline.net or d69chevy@optonline.net

Dear HixNews,

As always I love reading the HixNews - you all do such a great job. It was neat seeing Ricki Pollack's photo. Please send her my best. I have been living in Greensboro, North Carolina since 1975, but one of my sons lives in Manhattan, so I do get my New York fix every other month! I hope my class has a 50th Reunion next year; it will be such fun to see everyone. Our 25th and 40th were great. Still working at the University of North Carolina, Greensboro and loving every minute! I have no plans to retire! Sending love to my fellow classmates.

Can you help or direct me? Thank-you.

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

My most recent work, "The Holocaust Diaries," is a historic snapshot of Europe and the Holocaust. It is a compelling five part series highlighting momentous decisions made by President Roosevelt and Pope Pius XII. If you are interested in the series or in any one of the books, you can preview them as to summaries, content and pricing by visiting www.authorhouse.com (select "The Holocaust Diaries" or Leo V. Kanawada, Jr.) or please call Author House at 1-888-280-7715 or through your Bookseller (or Amazon.com or BarnesandNoble.com). Thanks for your time and consideration.

Most Sincerely,

Seriously??

Two little old ladies, Doris & Jackie were sitting on a park bench outside the local town hall where a flower show was in progress. The short one, Jackie leaned over and said, "Life is so boring. We never have any fun any more. For $10.00 I'd take my clothes off and streak through that stupid, boring flower show!"

'You're on!' said Doris, holding up a $10.00 note.

So Jackie slowly fumbled her way out of her clothes and completely naked, streaked (as fast as an old lady can) through the front door of the flower show. Waiting outside, her friend soon heard a huge commotion inside the hall, followed by loud applause and shrill whistling. Finally, the smiling Jackie came through the exit door surrounded by a cheering, clapping crowd.

"What happened?" asked her waiting friend.

"I won $1,000 as 1st prize for 'Best Dried Arrangement' !"

ED. NOTE: This joke must have been made up by a man; only a man would think it was funny!

When my husband and I arrived at an automobile dealership to pick up our new car, we were told the keys had been locked inside. We went to the service department and found a mechanic working feverishly to unlock the driver-side door. As I watched from the passenger side, I instinctively tried the door handle. To my amazement, I discovered it was unlocked.

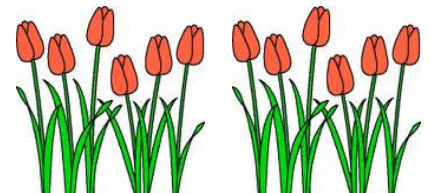

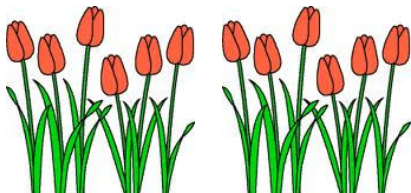

'Hey,' I announced to the technician, 'it's open!'

His reply: 'I know. I already got that side.'

Through A Child's Eye

Dear God

- I went to this wedding and they kissed right in church. Is that Okay? Neil
- Instead of letting people die, and having to make new ones, why don't you just keep the ones you got now? Jane
- I am American. What are you? Robert
- I think about you sometimes even when I'm not praying! Elliott
- Please put another holiday between Christmas and Easter. There is nothing good there now. Ginny
- Thank You for the baby brother, but what I prayed for was a puppy! Joyce
- We read that Thomas Edison made light. But, in Sunday school, they said you did it. So I bet he stoled your idea. Sincerely, Donna
- If we come back as something, please don't let me be Jennifer Horton because I hate her. Denise
