HHS Student Wins Nassau County Diving Championship

Lauren Cecco wins second straight county title

Lauren Cecco, a senior at Hicksville High School, recently won the Nassau County Diving Championship for the second consecutive year. She qualified for the New York State Championship in Ithaca for the fifth consecutive year, making the finals and finishing in the top-10 each year. Lauren is pictured on the left with coach Joanne Corio. Lauren will be attending the University of Connecticut on a diving scholarship.

Dear Editors

I don't know whether or not you sent me a birthday card in November, if you did I didn't get it, but I have been having troubles with local teens stealing my mail from my rural mail box. So thank you if you sent a card.

Loretta McLaughlin 1966

BTW: I contacted the State Troopers and I believe they got the kiddies doing this, let's hope so.

Editor Note:

We don't send "real" cards via snail mail, only electronic cards via the internet.

Your name is on the birthday list for November, so you probably received a card electronically.

If we, in fact, missed you, we wish you a very happy birthday early for next year or late for this year. Thank heaven for them State Troopers.

Bob,

I have 51 deceased on the In Memoriam list for the class of 1960 and the list on HixNews has 50. The one missing from the HixNews site is Helen Mangialomini Coulmas. You might want to check and see for sure if she was in the 1960 class as I am at our beach place and don't have the yearbook here.

I don't remember her.

I looked in the yearbook for Helen Mangialomini Coulmas but didn't see a graduation picture.

I also checked the various clubs thinking there might be a photo of her, to no avail.

The time frame and her age makes it appear that she would have graduated with the class of 1960.

Dear Hix News Editors,

Please post my query.

Since many of you from the class of 1960 shared our earlier grades too, I'm wondering if anybody out there remembers putting on Gilbert & Sullivan's "The Mikado" in junior high? I think it was the 8th or 9th grade.

I've been listening to that operetta a lot lately and love the film, "Topsy-Turvy" by Mike Leigh, which is about how G&S created the original production.

For the Junior High production I found myself one day inexplicably on my way to try-out for one of the singing parts (something I'd never done before or since), preferably Nanki-Pu, the guy that gets the beautiful maiden. I got the part of Pish-Tush. An old noble. He's the character who sings the title song though, along, somehow, with a chorus behind him. I loved doing it.

My mother made my period Japanese costume from bed sheets she dyed different colors. She did an excellent job. I was really proud to wear it. I think it was a brilliant choice by the school's music director to teach us about theater-craft. And it was great fun!

So, anybody else remember this? If yes, please write your experience of it.

Thanks

What's with the dang Newsletter?!

Hi,

Up to a couple of months ago I could get the monthly newsletter with no problems. Now it has changed and I can't get into it, even on the computer at the library. I'm not real computer literate so I doubt I can do anything with it. If you can make a few easy suggestions I will try it again.

You all do such a great job putting out the news, I hate missing it after all this time.

Sincerely,

Noel Horowitz Heinz

Editor Note: Noel, try clicking on the link to download the file to the computer you're using and view it that way. Be aware that the newsletter portion is a large file so give it some time to load, especially if you're on a slower Internet connection.

Sad to announce the passing of Mike Donovan from the class of 1959. I've known Mike for years and, at one time, he worked next door to me on West John Street. May he rest in peace.

Thanks Bob & The Gang at HixNews Thanks for the card and for thinking of me. It was much appreciated, as always. You Guys take the extra step for Us all!

"Murry" Dalaimo 1959

Hi Bob,

First I want to thank you & the gang at HixNews for the birthday card. My reason for sending you this message may be a first for you. I have enjoyed the past efforts by you & your crew for keeping all of us informed about the events to all who subscribe to the Newsletter. However I have chosen to discontinue receiving future birthday cards and that the February newsletter of 2013 shall be my last. I am doing this by my own choice and it has nothing to do with you, your News crew, nor is it influenced by anything anyone has said or did. It is by my own choice for reasons I don't care to disclose.

In essence Bob I am shutting down, having just turned 75, I am retreating into my immediate circle of close friends, in good health, and going out with a winning hand so to speak. My high school years were great, and I've had a good life. Living during the fifties and sixties were the best! I don't want to end up on the obit list in the Newsletter. I'll pass quietly & privately as a true Scorpio. Life has been good to me.

Continue your good works Bob. You have a lot to be proud of. I had thought about turning over my 1955 year-book to you, but decided against it as there is too much information that should and will remain private.

As to the future, I hope the fifty-five class has a 60th re-union, as I missed the last, and my lines of communication remain open by email, phone or address in order to reach me. Other than that Bob, I hope you will abide by my requests. Other than that I wish you all the best with the Newsletter in the future. Thanks in advance and Merry Christmas to you and the gang at Hix news for all you do!

Very truly,

Hank Chupka 1955

Editor Note:

The newsletter is always available on our website <http://hixnews.com>

The only thing we need do is remove your name from the list that Henry uses to send the monthly note advising that the current issue of the newsletter was posted to our website. We will do that immediately rather than wait until your desire to end reading the newsletter in February of 2013.

More Thanks!

The card was nice. When I was young, I used to think age 72 was ancient. Now I think 72 is -- oh yeah - ancient! It's a good thing I don't feel that old.

Looking for

I just opened you're looking for people list and saw where Joan Williams is looking for me.

Would you FWD her my e-mail address or e-mail me her e-mail address.

Thank you, Art

Arthur Lembke (49)

Editor Note:

Sorry, Art. You are the "looker" for Joan Williams, who is the "lookee" (being looked for by you). BTW, you are not the only one who has made this mistake. But I don't know how I can make it any clearer (in the list) who is doing the looking and who is being looked for.

Another explanation:

The "lookee" is the person who is being looked for, namely Joan. The "looker" is the person who is doing the looking, namely you. I am the one who maintains the "Looking for People" list, and I am the one who entered your inquiry about Joan.

If we had any information about Joan's whereabouts we would gladly give it to you. But, sadly, we don't. Once again, Joan is not looking for you (not to our knowledge, anyway); you are looking for Joan.

Capisce?

Best, Henry

Dear Buffalo Bob

Where our own beloved Buffalo Bob corresponds for a few pages with a random reader

Happy Birthday to our Buffalo Bob!

Thanks so much to all who sent me best wishes for a happy birthday. Nothing exciting happened with the exception of having Sarah for the weekend. She is special as all grand kids are. I marvel at the 7 year old and how she can navigate the internet and find whatever she wants without assistance.

Things are a lot different, we all realize, and I often wonder what it would have been like to have the same access kids have now at finding anything at anytime. I use the internet when doing the newsletter, when cooking, as I ponder how to clean something and for much, much more. As I said, thanks so much for remembering me on this day that used to be very special but lost a lot of validity as the family moved around so much. I miss seeing my family in Bethpage.

buffalo bob casale

My family has moved around a lot too, Bob, so I know what you mean, but having your granddaughter to celebrate your birthday with is special. I too marvel at how good our grandkids are on the computer. Can you imagine what they and the world will be like when they approach our age!?!? I think it will definitely be a different place and even much more advanced than we are now as technology continues to explode exponentially. I'm sorry I'm a day late here, but HAPPY BIRTHDAY once again and glad you received my card!

All the best,

A Flashback to Christmas...

A giggle with goats

FLASHBACK

Loved the December issue. Enjoyed seeing the photo of Bahrenburg's Bakery; later sold to Englerts as awning on store shows. The Sweet Shop as we knew it next door to the bakery and I had forgotten all about Rogers 5 & 10!

The doorway between Sweet Shop and 5 & 10 led upstairs to Seaman and Eisemann's insurance agency. They later located on the east side of Broadway next to Schwartz furniture store in their own building (now demolished) and the Town of Oyster Bay is building a youth recreational building on that plot of land.

The Sign-A-Rama building was also the location of Mr. Curt Unverhau's drug store. Elsbeth Unverhau Creutz was his daughter and one of my best friends is Karin Creutz Weyer, Mr. Unverhau's granddaughter. Elsbeth was an HHS graduate and Karin and I graduated in 1954. Her sister Janet Creutz Anderson graduated in 1955.

Dr. Elwood Curtis, the dentist, had his office above the drug store. Dr. Curtis had prize roosters he used to "show" at the Mineola Fair. Funny, how you don't forget some things. Curtis' home on W. Cherry Street became a restaurant for several years. Not sure what is there now as I don't get down that way much. Mostly Broadway area.

Huettner's Furniture store moved diagonally across from Unverhau's and became a department store on the south side of Marie Street (across from Bahrenburg's) which would be to the "camera's" left. After the widening of Broadway, the block from Marie Street to Nicholai Street remains void of buildings as it once was.

As I'm writing this, I just thought of the newspaper store on the corner of Broadway and the south side of E. Marie Street - BRESNICKS. Arnold Bresnick was in my class. Name just came to me. They say it is the short term memory that goes first!
