Local Talent: Kirk Larsen

Kirk Larsen is one to watch. Recently named one of the hottest artists of 2013 by the Creative Arts Studio of Sea Cliff, Larsen has acquired numerous accolades and is continuing to build up an impressive gallery of beautiful plein air paintings that capture the beauty in the world around him.

Larsen is currently working on a series of paintings for a May exhibit at the Hicksville Public Library. A longtime resident of Hicksville, and graduate of Hicksville High School, Larsen hopes to pay homage to his beloved hometown.

One scene Larsen is painting is Cantiague Park in Westbury, a place Larsen spent many of his teenage days. His focus is the dome-shaped Ice Skating Rink, and as he unpacks his canvas bag full of art supplies and sets up his French easel on a bright, chilly day in late February, he comments that he's tired.

"The body sometimes does that to get ready for a painting," he says.

As soon as he is set up however, Larsen comes alive. Larsen's green pencil flies across his sketchpad, his hazel eyes glancing up and down at the rink as he quickly takes note of the scene before him. 30 seconds later, he is done with the sketch, which will serve as a point of reference for him as he paints. The initial sketch is important, as it allows him to remember what the scene looked like as the sun moves, which will affect the lighting, color and where the shadows fall.

Hi everyone, especially the class of 1956!

Wanted to let you know that I recently shot two shows that will be on TV some time in February. The first is the new Investigation Discovery show, "Redrum," (Murder spelled backwards). It's the true story of the Duvarado family in California. I played Mary Ann Duvarado (wearing my gray wig.) Unfortunately, along with her husband, Mary Ann was killed by their son. It was quite a physical role as I had to fall down (dead) at least 10 times to get the shot. The second was "Celebrity Ghost Stories" on The Biography Channel. Here I played Grandma Ima, (no wig), the Grandmother of Adrianna Costa, who has a ghostly experience.

Wishing you all a Happy, Healthy, and successful 2013!

To Whom This May Concern,

I stumbled across the newsletter while messing around on the Internet which I found interesting as an alumni myself, graduating in 1987. The issue was highlighting the retirement of the Vice Principal, Nancy DeSorbo, who was my teacher for typing class back in the day. After looking through a few of the archived issues and further research on the Internet there are some names missing from the In Memoriam section. Initially noticing the name Thomas Pedecini class of 1989 drew my attention because I went to school with his sister, Anne. After looking on Google I was completely shocked to read about brothers Mark and Stephen Colaio who also died on 9/11. I know Stephen graduated from Hicksville High because we were in the same class, so I would bet his older brother did as well. Please conduct your own research and add them to the In Memoriam section as they were needlessly taken away from us too early and deserve to be recognized. Thank you.

I want to alert you to a review of the man you have on your website as selling Hicksville school yearbooks.

Do a google search on his store name and read the scathing reviews left by others & now myself as well. You will want to think twice about sending anyone his way. The male owner (Amnon Tishler) of deserves well below even a 1-star rating! Never been there before and thought I was visiting a friendly neighborhood Book Store but NO!!! When asked a question about books (assuming he was an expert), I was told "This is a business" and I would have to spend money first. Thought that was a bit gruff but I said OK & asked if he had a particular book I needed to finish a set. Turns out he didn't have the book and instead of answering my question, he literally picks up a bag I brought in and puts it OUTSIDE THE DOOR on the sidewalk of a busy street!!! I was shocked! He was so rude & belligerent to treat me that way.

I asked in disbelief "Did you just put my bag outside?" He said yes & dismissed me and walked away. He must be so bitter & hard up for money that he lost all his decency on how to treat people. There was not one other customer in that cramped, ice-cold place either and I know why. Let's see how much farther his "business" declines after others hear how he treats potential customers. And I hope he is reading this right now so he understands that bad reviews travel quick & far by WORD OF MOUTH!!! Reap what you sow.

Hi Friends,

Joyce Hanagan and I recently performed four movements of my Suite Grandkids at an American Music Society Concert in Colorado Springs. An AMS member, Paul, video taped the concert, edited it and put it on Youtube. Paul does this kind of thing professionally (SpiritwindsArabs), so they came out very nice. If you want to see these, get into Youtube and search "Jim Bosse" and they should come up, with the other Youtube performances that I posted with Dos Americas Guitar Duo. I have also listed the links below.

I composed Suite Grandkids, one piece for each kid, originally for guitar trio. This version was decomposed for oboe and guitar. Each child has some unique genetic heritage, so I used that for the inspiration for each piece. Riely is African so I tried to compose a piece with no melody, just African drum rhythms. Somehow a rock n roll middle section snuck in. When I decomposed this piece for voice and guitar, a rap song evolved. Thus the melody for the oboe version is lean on melody notes (only two). To give Joyce more to do, I wrote a percussion part for her, and asked her to ad lib exotic African animal sounds.

Analysia is Peruvian. For her main theme I used a simple chant that I heard street merchants in the Andes, singing to announce their wares. Her middle name is Margarita, Daisy in Spanish. Timothy is Native American, so I wrote his with that musical aesthetic in mind. Chiara is Scottish, so a lively Scottish Air evolved. I hope you enjoy these fun pieces. Jim

My brother Robin Winkel (1964), Bob Smith (1963), Ronnie Zeier (1963) and me, Fred Winkel (1962), met at PGA Village in Port St Lucie (Robin lives there) for a day of golf and BBQ after. Perfect weather, beautiful golf course, all played well for the makings of a great day. Bob and Ronnie live in Ormond Beach, FL and I am in Palm Beach Gardens. We'll certainly do again. We should give some thought to a HHS golf outing down here. There certainly are enough of us. Best to all from the classes of 1962-1964.

Hi Bob,

I wanted to advise you that my email has changed. It is now (concealed). I hope that you can change it on our class list. I am also attaching my class photo that I discovered in my photo collection. I hope all is well with you.

We are still doing repair work from Sandy. We had quite a bit of flooding in our lower levels and the garage. We had to stay with friends for 10 days as there was no heat or hot water until then. The heat didn't come back until a month after we returned to the house. But as long as we had power and hot water we made do. Luckily it wasn't that cold and our house is well insulated. While we had a mess on our hands, at least we were able to return to our home. There are so many others who had their entire home destroyed. Many are still living in hotel rooms. We live right near a river here in Rockville Centre and this is the first time in 28 years that a storm had such an effect on our home. Needless to say, my neighbors had the same kind of damages that we incurred.

Warmest regards,

Beth Mangani – Knipfing 196

Hi Henry: I noticed that my wifes name on the memorial list is badly misspelled. It should be Gail Ann Erhardt Isaksen. If you can get it corrected it would be nice.

Thanks, Elliot! I have added Jonathan to the Memorial List and will email him directly to see if he has a middle initial. That's all I need to complete his listing. Also, since you are working on your 50th Class Reunion, let me know if you come across any other names that belong on our list. We've done very well getting names from the 50th Reunion Committees from '59 on, including my own class last year as the 50th milestone is when people start to surface again.

We had a great time at our 50th this past October and I'm sure yours will go well too. Ed Kramer, who was your class president was a good friend of mine at HHS and I was sorry to hear he passed away so young. He was a terrific guy.

Regards,

Joe 1962

Dear Jonathan Varat,

I received the email below from Elliot Gorlin, your classmate at HHS, regarding your qualification for the Vietnam War Era Memorial we are planning to put up in Hicksville. All I need to complete your listing is:

- 1) Do you have a middle initial? If so, what is it?
- 2) Tell me if you won any significant medals during your active duty service. If so, we may likely have room on the memorial plaques to list one medal, so tell me which one you are proudest of and would like to have listed.

Thanks,

Joe Carfora HHS 1962

P.S. If you go to www.hixnews.com and then click on the "Honoring Our Veterans" tab of the website, you will find an update on the Memorial Project. Near the end of the update will be a link you can click on to see the List of Names we have already gathered from Hicksville residents who attended high school in Hicksville and served at least a year on active duty during the Vietnam War Era. Earlier in the update is a list of requirements to qualify for the Memorial.

Hi Joe,

Thanks for the email. My middle initial is D.--as in David--and I received a Bronze Medal for Service. Elliot correctly conveyed the basic information. You may not need this, but my service in Vietnam was from July 1970 - July 1971.

I mentioned this to Elliot, but though I lived in Hicksville from 1955-1963 and graduated from HHS in 1963, my mom moved to the Bronx just after graduation and before I turned 18 a few weeks later, so my draft board was in the Bronx. I thought maybe the Hicksville Veterans list had been compiled from local draft board lists, which would explain why you didn't have information about me, but in any event thanks for making the effort to do this project and for including me.

Cheers, Jon

Thank you, Bob - for looking further and finding this. It is sad, of course, but now I know. His younger brother Stephen is the other person I was looking for - he was 5-6 years younger, maybe more, but went to Hicksville also. I graduated in '62, in between George and his other brother Philip, also deceased. I was hoping to find Stephan also.
